

GOACC

From: "GOACC" <info@ossipeevalley.org>
To: "GOACC" <info@ossipeevalley.org>
Sent: Thursday, December 20, 2007 6:12 PM
Subject: newsletter: calling all chefs, voice of the valley,after hours

"Ossipee Valley News"

Hi folks,

Hope you're surviving this barage of snow...it's great for the skiers and snowmobilers! Try to enjoy it when it's here! Some announcements below:

Chef's Pants Off

This year's Chef's Pants Off (on Jan. 23 from 6 to 9 p.m.) is raising money to bring the Vietnam Veterans' Moving Wall to Ossipee May 22 - 26, 2008. The word from Sarah Millette, one of the organizers, is that they need chefs - both those professionally employed and those treasured secret home or civilian chefs. Remember the contest is really about the clothes not the food, but the food is an important part of it. There is a registration fee for chefs of $50 plus food for 75 to 100 people. This years event is at Camp Cody and is limited to 250 people. Interested chefs should call Dave Dube at 539-3441.

Voice of the Valley

The Barnstormers Theatre and M&D Productions of Conway are co-hosting the Voice of the Valley at the Barnstormers Theatre this year! The first round of this singing competition starts Jan. 5 and continues through the month. They are looking for the best singers in Eastern NH and Western Maine. Do you have what it takes to be a winner? Whether it's country, pop, rock, classical or none of the above, come compete for cash prizes, fame, fortune and the coveted crown. It's all in good fun!

There are many registration categories, and there are registration fees. Call M&D Productions at 662-7591 or the Barnstormers Theatre at 323-8500 for more information or registration information!

After Hours

The next after hours is being planned by the Barnstormers Theatre, Advice to the Players, Arts Council of Tamworth, and the Remick Country Doctor and Farm Museum for Tuesday, Jan. 8! Look for their invitation in the mail after Christmas!

Economic Expo

Ossipee Main Street will be hosting the 3rd annual Economic Expo. This is a call to all area businesses who provide business services or artisans who want to show their wares. The artisan must really be in business -- this is not for the crafter who wants to make a little extra money. The goal in expanding to an expo is to make te event appeal to a wider audience and give the small business person a new venue during mud season. Next year's economic expo is Saturday, March 29 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. for more information, call Sarah Millette at 539-7200.

Newspaper article ideas?

Do you have a great business story that is just waiting to be written? Let me know here at the office at 539-6201...I'm going to try to do a weekly business article that will appear in the Carroll County Independent. Let's highlight your business as business of the week, or maybe you know of some tough business regulations out there that need to be changed. Let me know - we'll talk about it!

Merry Christmas and a happy New Year from all of us at the Greater Ossipee Area Chamber of Commerce!
 If I missed any announcements, I will send them onto you all!

Lori Lenart
 Executive Director
 Greater Ossipee Area Chamber Of Commerce
 P.O. Box 323
 86 Main Street
 Center Ossipee, NH 03814-0323
 (603)-539-6201 or toll free at 1-(866)-683-6295
www.ossipeevalley.org
info@ossipeevalley.org